

PRESENTERS

Saralyn Gillikin, DNP, MSN, NEA-C, RN-BC, C-EFM

Saralynn Gillikin is an expert clinician and educator in women's health and obstetrical nursing. She is a third generation OB nurse. She has served in a variety of roles including staff nurse, educator, faculty, and administrator. Saralyn is active in the Association of Women's Health, Obstetrics, and Neonatal Nursing (AWHONN). Saralyn's passion for women's health and obstetrical nursing and the nurses who care for them translates in this course through the way she prepares participants to challenge and pass the certification exam.

Pamela Spivey, MSN, APRN, CCNS, RN-BC

Pam is dedicated to preparing neonatal nurses to sit for their nursing sub-specialty certification exams. She is an expert in neonatal nursing, speaker, and author. She has spent the majority of her career in neonatal nursing including as a Registered Nurse, Neonatal Outreach Education Coordinator, and Neonatal Clinical Nurse Specialist. Pam is active in the National Association of Neonatal Nurses (NANN) having served as Education Provider Committee Chair, Director at Large, and most recently as President. She is an authority on the Neonatal Intensive Care Nursing Certification (RNC-NIC), Low Risk Neonatal Certification (RNC-LRN), and Maternal Newborn Nursing Certification (RNC-MNN) exam and review process. Pam presents 2-day review courses onsite at hospitals and at regional review courses across the country.
